

What is the AMLA Leadership Program?

The AMLA Leadership Program consists of a 6 – 10 events over the course of a year for a small group of people – 15 to 20. The goal of the program is to provide unique experiences for mortgage professionals (or people who do business with the mortgage industry) who want to be considered leaders. Our events have included meetings with a State Representative, the Superintendent of the Department of Financial Institutions, a top Real Estate Broker, the Real Estate Commissioner and other industry leaders. In 2018, we have already planned a trip to the State Legislature, a Service Project, personality assessments, and marketing and business development. As the group moves through the year, we discover new areas of interest and develop them along the way. As a Leadership participant you will be introduced to the AMLA board and participate in board functions to gain additional insight and hands-on experience in serving in a Leadership role.

You must be employed by an AMLA member to apply for the Leadership Program. In order to participate in the 2018 program, please complete this application and return it to Debbi Hill by December 5, 2017. Tuition for a full year of activities is $225.00. Graduation from the program requires active participation and attendance to at least 80% of planned events. Attendance at regular AMLA lunches, education seminars and the annual convention is encouraged.
